'Biden willfully kept classified materials'

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

In a damaging report ahead of the November 5 polls, a special US counsel has said that President Joe Biden "willfully" mishandled classified documents as a private citizen but concluded that it would be difficult to convict him as he comes across as an "elderly man with a poor memory".

The special counsel report said he had kept secret documents related to military and foreign policy in Afghanistan after serving as vice president until 2017.

The comment by Special Counsel Robert Hur in his 345-page report described Biden, 81, as "an elderly man with poor memory", prompting a furious response from the president who held an impromptu press conference at the White House during which he asserted that his "memory is fine."

The report was released after an investigation that lasted more than a year and related to classified files found at Biden's home and former private office from 2022-23.

The report revealed for the first time that the documents were classified as Top Secret - the highest level of classification, and related to Afghanistan.

The files included notebooks containing Biden's entries about national security and foreign policy matters "implicating sensitive intelligence sources and methods".

The report criticised Biden for sharing some of the sensitive material in those notebooks with a ghostwriter for his memoir. Hur said: "We conclude that the evidence does not establish Mr Biden's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt." "Prosecution of Mr Biden is also unwarranted based on our consideration of the aggravating and mitigating Biden's memory was significantly limited, both during his recorded interviews with the ghostwriter in Special Counsel's office in 2023, he said. "And his cooperation with our investigation, including by reporting to the government that the Afghanistan documents were in his Delaware garage, will likely convince some jurors

2017, and in his interview with the

that he made an innocent mistake, rather than acting willfully-that is, with intent to break the law as the statute requires," Hur wrote.

The special counsel's report said that it would be difficult to convict the president of improper handling of files because "Mr Biden would likely present himself to a jury, as he did during our interview of him, as a sympathetic, well-meaning, elderly man with poor memory.

"In his interview with our office, Mr. Biden's memory was worse. He did not remember when he was vice president, forgetting on the first day of the interview when his term ended ("if it was 2013 - when did I stop being Vice President?"), and forgetting on the second day of the interview when his term began ("in 2009, am I still Vice President?")," Hur said.

He did not remember, even within several years when his son Beau died. And his memory appeared hazy when describing the Afghanistan debate that was once so important to him, Hur

Among other things, he mistakenly said he "had a real difference" of opinion with General Karl Eikenberry when, in fact, Eikenberry was an ally whom Mr. Biden cited approvingly in his Thanksgiving memo to President (Barack) Obama," said the report. Responding to reporters' questions, Biden expressed his anger and displeasure at the counsel's report on his memory.

There's even a reference that I don't remember when my son died. How in the hell dare he raise that. It wasn't any of their damn business... don't need anyone to remind me when he passed away," a furious Biden told reporters at the White House.

"Frankly, when I was asked the question, I thought to myself, was it any of their damn business...The simple truth is that I sat for five hours, two days, over events going back 40 years. At the same time, I was managing a national crisis," Biden asserted.

"I've seen headlines since the report was released about my willful retention of documents. This assertion is not only misleading, it's just plain wrong," he said.

Israeli bombs target in Rafah

Israel bombed targets in over-crowded Rafah early Friday, hours after Biden administration officials warned Israel against expanding its Gaza ground offensive to the southern city where more than half of the territory's 2.3 million people have sought refuge. Airstrikes overnight and into Friday hit two residential buildings in Rafah, killing eight Palestinians, and a third strike targeted a kindergarten-turned-shelter for the displaced in central Gaza, killing at least four people, according to hospital officials and AP journalists who saw bodies arriving at hospitals. US President Joe Biden said Thursday that Israel's conduct in the war, ignited by a deadly Oct. 7 Hamas attack, is "over the top," the harshest U.S. criticism yet of its close ally and an expression of concern about a soaring civilian death toll in Gaza.

Israel's stated intentions to expand its ground offensive to Rafah also prompted an unusual public backlash in Washington. "We have yet to see any evidence of serious planning for such an operation," Vedant Patel, a State Department spokesman, said Thursday. Going ahead with such an offensive now, "with no planning and little thought in an area where there is sheltering of a million people would be a disaster."John Kirby, the National Security Council spokesperson, said an Israel ground offensive in Rafah is "not something we would support." The comments signaled intensifying US friction with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, who pushed a message of "total victory" in the war this week, at a time when U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinken was in Israel to press for a cease-fire deal in exchange for the release of dozens of Hamasheld hostages.

Prince Harry settles phone hacking claims with Mirror Group

London (PTI): Britain's Prince Harry will receive a "substantial" payout after he settled the remainder of his phone hacking claims against the Mirror Group Network (MGN) of newspapers, it emerged at a hearing in the High Court in London on Friday. The lawyer for Duke of Sussex, who is now based in the US with wife Meghan and kids Archie and Lilibet, said at the costs hearing that the newspaper publisher had now accepted it would pay "a substantial additional sum" by way of damages and Harry's legal costs.

It follows a High Court ruling in December last year that phone hacking was carried out at MGN from 1996 and 2011 and was "widespread and habitual" from 1998.

In a statement read on behalf of Prince Harry outside court, his lawyer said: "Everything we said was happening at Mirror Group was in fact happening, and indeed far worse as the court ruled in its extremely damning judgment."In light of all this, we call again for the authorities to uphold the rule of law and to prove that no one is above it."

Singling out former 'Mirror' tabloid editor Piers Morgan, who Harry said "knew perfectly well" what was going on, the statement added: "Even his own employer realised it simply could not call him as a witness of truth.

Netanyahu orders population of Rafah evacuated

Rafah (Gaza Strip): Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu says he has ordered the military to prepare a plan to evacuate the population of Rafah ahead of an expected Israeli invasion of the southern Gaza town. rrNetanyahu made the announcement Friday following international criticism of Israel's plan to invade the crowded town on Egypt's bor-

Israel says Rafah is the last remaining Ĥamas stronghold and it needs to send in troops to complete its war plan against the Islamic militant group. But an estimated 1.5 million Palestinians have crammed into the town after fleeing fighting elsewhere in Gaza.

Netanyahu said a "massive operation" is needed in Rafah. He said he asked security officials to present a "double plan" that would include the evacuation of civilians and a military operation to "collapse" remaining Hamas militant units.

Earlier Friday, Israel bombed targets in Rafah. The attack took place hours after Biden administration officials and aid agencies warned Israel against expanding its Gaza ground offensive to the town where more than half of the territory's 2.3 million people have sought refuge. Airstrikes overnight and into Friday hit two residential buildings in Rafah, while two other sites were bombed in central Gaza, including one that damaged a kindergartenturned-shelter for displaced Palestinians.

Twenty-two people were killed, according to AP journalists who saw the bodies arriving at hospitals.
